Dalingo®, extended-release tablets (pregabalin) – I: For the treatment of peripheral and central neuropathic pain in adults. D: The dose range is 165 to 660 mg per day, to be taken once daily immediately after an evening meal. Treatment may be started with a daily dose of 165 mg. Depending on response and individual tolerance, the dose may be increased to 330 mg per day within 1 week. The recommended maximum dose of Dalingo prolonged-release tablets is 660 mg once daily, taken immediately after an evening meal. CI: Hypersensitivity to the active substance or any of the excipients. AR: Dizziness, drowsiness, headache, erectile dysfunction, vomiting, nausea, constipation, diarrhoea, flatulence, dry mouth. IA: Pregabalin may enhance the effects of ethanol and lorazepam. Following market launch, cases of respiratory arrest, coma and death have been reported in patients taking pregabalin in combination with opioids and/or other medicinal products with a depressant effect on the central nervous system (CNS). Original pack containing 30 prolonged-release tablets in an HDPE container with a wide opening and a child-resistant white cap.
